Dear Recruiting Team,

I'm interested in the Front-end developer role at MONI Group. As a final-year Computer Engineering student at The University of Hong Kong with software development and digital marketing experience, I'm ready to contribute to your team. My background includes leading website development at NovBee and boosting digital marketing outcomes at Homie Living. Available for part-time work now and full-time from May 22nd post-graduation, I look forward to leveraging my skills in React, Next.js, Node.js, and various tech stacks for MONI Group.

My projects like React MIDI Editor demonstrate my ability to deliver innovative solutions. the opportunity to work alongside a diverse team of tech leads, UX team, and designers at the cutting edge of innovative, interactive technologies. This role also positions me to dramatically enhance my web standards best practices and enrich my development skills. I'm excited to discuss how my background aligns with your needs, aiming for a $27,000 salary (negotiable). I appreciate your consideration and am available for an interview at your convenience. Attached is my resume for more details on my achievements.

Thank you very much for your time and interest.

Chan Yat Fu
